

AGRIMBA: A tool for life long learning for professionals and academics

W.J.M. Heijman (General Secretary)
Wageningen, October 2019.

The Network supplies academic inputs for low cost MBA Programmes in the field of agribusiness and commerce and accredits MBA Programs.

At the moment available in: Warsaw, Prague, Debrecen, Kiev, Zagreb, Nitra, Belgrade, Kazan, Belgorod, Ulaan Baatar, Stavropol, and Tomsk.

Expansion is foreseen in Addis Ababa (Ethiopia), Bila Tserkva (Ukraine), Irkutsk (Russia), Kathmandu (Nepal).

Membership of the Network is open to everybody and free of charge.

At the moment there are 33 General Board Members from 17 universities

<https://www.ica-agrimba.eu/>

Challenges:

1. Attract sufficient students;
2. How to renew the program?

New Strategy

1. Develop and accredit separate attractive modules.
2. Students that pass the Module Exam receive a certificate per module.
3. If students have accomplished a sufficient amount of credits, and have written a thesis they are awarded the Agrimba MBA Diploma.
4. Financial Means to develop new materials to be acquired by an Erasmus+ Project, to be submitted by the end of 2019.